

433

LIVINGSTON CLEGG
MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, pioneers.

His early education was received in Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the Church in the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school in 1916, returning to Heber City to practice law.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are also grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber for one term and was a stalwart of the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he is called, was a fearless defender for the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and was named to a trade commission by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was greatly felt in formulation of policies relating to the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of the State University and was a director

LIVINGSTON C. MONTGOMERY, who for many years has handled the legal business of Wasatch County as county attorney, is a resident of Heber City. His name has been connected with nearly every important movement in the business and civic life of that community during the past twenty years.

Mr. Montgomery was born at Heber, October 3, 1888, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann (Clegg) Montgomery. His father was born in Scotland, settled in this district of Utah in 1863 and was a leader in its agricultural development and one of the prominent members of the church. He was a member of the High Council of the church for a quarter of a century.

Livingston C. Montgomery obtained his grammar and high school education at Heber. From the local schools he entered the University of Utah, where he took his LL. B. degree in 1916, and since that date has been a qualified attorney and member of the Heber bar.

He served three years as city attorney. He was first elected county attorney of Wasatch County in 1915. He was again elected in 1919, also in 1925, and his present term of office followed his reelection in 1929.

Mr. Montgomery was active in the organization of the Heber Chamber of Commerce and has had some official responsibility in that body ever since, served as secretary and member of the board of governors and at this time, 1932, is president. He is a member of the Heber Lions Club.

Utah - Alter III: 168-169

Mr. Montgomery in 1910 was sent on a mission for the church to the northern states, making his headquarters in Chicago and becoming president of the Chicago Conference of the Latter Day Saints. While there he established the first church of the Logan Square branch and organized the Roseland branch. He was for eight years superintendent of the Sunday School at Heber City.

Mr. Montgomery is also interested in ranching and the live stock industry. He is vice president of the Utah State Stock Growers Association and made two trips to Washington to represent that body in matters affecting grazing rights in the state. He was for ten years secretary of the Heber Horse & Cattle Growers Association. Mr. Montgomery is a director of the Bank of Heber City, director of the Heber Mercantile Company, and is a stockholder in the Heber Exchange Company of Heber City.

He married, February 3, 1921, Miss Edna Lodell, of Chicago. They have two children, Robert L. and Edward L.

1-1

1-1

1-1

1-1

1-1

1-1

1-1

Former Mayor of Heber, Attorney, 63, Succumbs

HEBER (Special)—L. C. Montgomery, 63, Wasatch County attorney and former mayor of Heber, died Friday at 7 p.m. in a local hospital of a coronary embolism suffered earlier in the day. He was born Oct. 3, 1888, in Heber, a son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery.

L. C. Montgomery... Wasatch County attorney dies in Heber.

He received his early education in Heber schools, attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from University of Utah law school.

He married Edna Lodell Feb. 3, 1921, in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She died Feb. 3, 1951. He married Mrs. Eva Bonner Jensen April 28, 1952, in the Mesa LDS Temple in Arizona.

Mr. Montgomery was president of Utah Cattle and Horse Growers Assn. for 17 years. In 1937 he was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941 he was elected vice president of the American Livestock Association.

He was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State Agricultural College. At the time of his death he was director of the Commercial Bank of Utah.

An active member of the LDS Church, Mr. Montgomery served a mission to the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He served for several years as Wasatch LDS Stake Sunday School superintendent and Heber Third LDS Ward superintendent.

He was a teacher of the Gospel Doctrine class in Heber Third LDS Ward and at the time of his death was a high priest.

Survivors include his widow and his mother, Heber; two sons, Robert Montgomery, Roosevelt, and Edward Montgomery, Detroit; three grandchildren; a sister and two brothers: Mrs. Juventa Hamblin, Dr. F. C. Montgomery and Walter Montgomery, all of Heber; two step-sons and a step-daughter, Floyd Jensen, Salt Lake City; Jay Jensen, San Jose, Cal., and Mrs. Marjorie Smith, Salt Lake City.

LIVINGSTON CLEGG MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, Utah pioneers.

His early education was received in the Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the LDS Church in the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school, coming to Heber City to practice law in 1916.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are five grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber City for one term and was a stalwart in the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he was called, was a fearless defender for the rights of the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and in 1937 was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was elected vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the old school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was extensively felt in formulation of policies on grazing on the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State University and was a director of the Commercial Bank of Utah. He was an active member of the LDS Church all his life. His wife Edna died February 3, 1951. He married Mrs. Eva Bonner Jensen on April 28, 1952, in the Mesa LDS Temple. Mr. Montgomery passed away suddenly in the evening of July 18, 1952, of a coronary embolism, at the age of 63 years.

president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and in 1937 was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was elected vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the old school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was extensively felt in formulation of policies on grazing on the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State University and was a director of the

STOCK NO. GA-032
PLACES: Sharon, Windsor, Vt.
ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794
FAMILY GROUP RECORD

To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the person submitting the sheet, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

HUSBAND

Born _____ Place _____
Chr. _____ Place _____
Marr. _____ Place _____
Died _____ Place _____
Bur. _____ Place _____

HUSBAND'S FATHER
HUSBAND'S OTHER WIVES

WIFE

Born _____ Place _____
Chr. _____ Place _____
Died _____ Place _____
Bur. _____ Place _____

WIFE'S FATHER
WIFE'S OTHER HUSBANDS

SEX M F	CHILDREN		WHEN BORN			TOWN
	Given Names	SURNAME	DAY	MONTH	YEAR
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

5 Feb 1926 THE W

PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP NOTICES.

For further information consult the County Clerk.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT, FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF WASATCH AND STATE OF UTAH.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the matter of the Estate of Mary W. Andrew, Deceased.

No. 435 Probate

Creditors will present claims with vouchers to the undersigned at the office of L. C. Montgomery, in Bank Building, Heber City, Wasatch County, State of Utah, on or before the 25th day of March A. D. 1926.

Dated January 19, A. D. 1926
Joseph A. Rasband and George Van-Wagoner, Administrators.
L. C. Montgomery, Attorney for Adm.

L. C. Montgomery

Husband
Wife

Livingston Clegg MONTGOMERY

HEBER BIOGRAPHIES p433

LIVINGSTON CLEGG MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, Utah pioneers.

His early education was received in the Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the LDS Church in the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school, coming to Heber City to practice law in 1916.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are five grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber City for one term and was a stalwart in the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he was called, was a fearless defender for the rights of the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and in 1937 was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was elected vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the old school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was extensively felt in formulation of policies on grazing on the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State University and was a director of the

L. C. Montgomery

L. C. Montgomery

NG SHEET
RELATION OF ABOVE TO WIFE
ONLY NO ☐
OCIETY
NANCE DATA
VED (Date) SEALED (Date and Temple) WIFE TO HUSBAND
SEALED (Date and Temple) CHILDREN TO PARENTS

LIVINGSTON CLEGG MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, Utah pioneers.

His early education was received in the Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the LDS Church in the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school, coming to Heber City to practice law in 1916.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are five grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber City for one term and was a stalwart in the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he was called, was a fearless defender for the rights of the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and in 1937 was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was elected vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the old school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was extensively felt in formulation of policies on grazing on the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State University and was a director of the Commercial Bank of Utah. He was an active member of the LDS Church all his life.

His wife Edna died February 3, 1951. He married Mrs. Eva Bonner Jensen on April 28, 1952, in the Mesa LDS Temple. Mr. Montgomery passed away suddenly in the evening of July 18, 1952, of a coronary embolism, at the age of 63 years.

LIVINGSTON CLEGG MONTGOMERY

L. C. Montgomery was born October 3, 1888, in Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery, Utah pioneers.

His early education was received in the Heber schools, completing his high school years after serving a mission for the LDS Church in the Northern States from 1909 to 1912. He attended Brigham Young University in Provo and was graduated from the University of Utah law school, coming to Heber City to practice law in 1916.

He married Edna Lodell, daughter of Joseph and Martha Lodell of Chicago, Illinois, in the Salt Lake Temple on February 3, 1921. They became the parents of two splendid sons, Robert L. Montgomery, a bank executive, and Edward L. Montgomery, a prominent attorney. There are five grandchildren.

Mr. Montgomery held many offices of trust. He was elected mayor of Heber City for one term and was a stalwart in the Democratic party in Utah. L. C., as he was called, was a fearless defender for the rights of the people of Wasatch County and served as county attorney for 22 years. He was president of the Utah Cattle and Horse Growers' Assn. for 17 years and in 1937 was named to a trade commission board by Gov. Henry H. Blood to investigate unfair trade practices. In 1941, L. C. was elected vice president of the American Livestock Assn. An outspoken positivist of the old school in the western livestock industry, Mr. Montgomery's influence was extensively felt in formulation of policies on grazing on the public domain. L. C. was a former member of the board of trustees of Utah State University and was a director of the Commercial Bank of Utah. He was an active member of the LDS Church all his life.

His wife Edna died February 3, 1951. He married Mrs. Eva Bonner Jensen on April 28, 1952, in the Mesa LDS Temple. Mr. Montgomery passed away suddenly in the evening of July 18, 1952, of a coronary embolism, at the age of 63 years.